

RECORD COURTSHIP BROUGHT THEM JOY

Bride of Charles W. Voss, Who Met and Wed Husband in an Hour, Says She Knew Him Long Enough.

HAPPY NOW AS HIS WIFE.

But it is none of the Public's Business, and the Devoted Couple Have Settled Down Among New Jersey Neighbors.

(Special to The Evening World.) NEW BRUNSWICK, Nov. 18.—Mrs. Charles W. Voss, who before her marriage was Miss Emma Alice Eaton, declares that it is none of the public's business if she did marry her present husband an hour after being introduced to him.

"I did not know Mr. Voss long, but I knew him long enough to know him very well, and to feel that he and I would be happy as husband and wife," is all that Mrs. Voss will say.

Miss Eaton and her husband-to-be met for the first time on Sunday evening at the home of a mutual friend. They had had many acquaintances and friends in common for some years, but had not met until then. It was at 8 o'clock that they were introduced, and at 9 o'clock they were on their way to the parsonage of the First Presbyterian Church, where they were married by Rev. W. W. Knox.

Miss Eaton had been living with relatives at No. 25 Nassau street. She is a prepossessing young woman of twenty-five. Her husband, who is thirty-five years old, was a widower, with two children.

The bridal couple are boarding at No. 21 Richmond street, but will go house-keeping soon. They are devoted to each other.

INSANE IN PARK; FOUGHT POLICE

Tailor, Whom Doctor Declares Is Violent, Gives Two Bluecoats All They Can Do to Subdue Him.

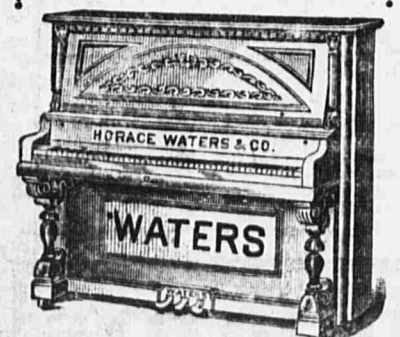

Policeman John J. Lynch, of the Delancey street station, had a hard fight with a man possessed of almost Herculean strength in the Corlear's Hook Park.

Lynch saw a crowd of men and boys in the park and upon investigation found a man wildly gesticulating and shouting. When the man saw the policeman he started to run, but was caught half way across the park.

The man fought his captor and Lynch had to call upon Policeman Lorigan for aid. An ambulance in charge of Dr. Emily Dunning took the man to Bellevue Hospital, where he said he was David Sitzer, a tailor, of No. 135 Suffolk street. He was examined by Dr. Steinick and placed in the psychopathic ward. Dr. Steinick gave as his opinion that the man was violently insane. After being placed in the ward he shouted and raved in spite of efforts to quiet him.

The Clothing Sale of the Year A Bold Statement—But a Fact.

The Biggest Cuts in the Price of Clothing Ever Heard Of at This Season of the Year, with the Space Given Over to the Telling of What We are Going to Do, Rather Than Why We Can Do It.

This announcement is backed by heaping tables of good, reliable merchandise that will be sold for less than the cost of manufacture. We quote in this advertisement the prices at which the garments usually sell and are worth and what you can buy them for during this sale—showing you just what you save!

Extra Salesmen Boys' 75c Corduroy Knee Pants, 29c. Men's Suits and Overcoats that were $10, now $5.95. Men's Suits and Overcoats that were $18, now $10.95. No Waiting

And hundreds of other values equally as great which lack of space forces back. Every dollar you spend here during this sale will have the force of two—and then if you are in any way dissatisfied with your purchase your money will be refunded for the asking. Positively no goods sent C. O. D. and no mail orders filled during this sale.
